The Kentuckiana Cluster has asked KTBCCL to submit judge's names to be considered for the 2004 shows. If you have a judge you would like to see judge the Border Collies at the Kentuckiana Cluster, please submit to Ronni DeLay no later than the next KTBCCL meeting.

New Business:

Awards Banquet:

An awards banquet will be held sometime in January to acknowledge our members dogs who have achieved a title during the previous year. Please submit your dog's name, title earned, date and place earned, along with your name to Mary Moulton, 1219 Cliffwood Dr., Goshen, KY 40026, saschamom@insightbb.com or Linda Mitchell, 8120 Village Point Dr., Louisville, KY 40291, lsm1212@hotmail.com by January 3, 2003.

Herding Trial:

Terry Kenny has agreed to judge our Herding Trial next year. He has volunteered to charge only his travel expenses.

A tentative date for our Herding Trail is May 17 & 18, 2003. Alternate dates are May 10 & 11, 2003 (first choice) and June 21 & 22, 2003.

A motion was made by Ronni DeLay and seconded by Nancy Keller to circulate a worker volunteer list and, if not enough workers volunteer, that we hire the help. After some discussion, motion was amended to circulate the worker list after a date has been decided for our Herding Trial and to hire help if we can't get enough volunteers. Motion carried.

Marcia Clem has agreed to cook for us both days of our Herding Trial and to split the net proceeds 60/40.

Ronni DeLay, assisted by Beverly Schulz, will be in charge of a KTBC Raffle at our Herding Trial. Please give your donations to Ronni DeLay, 2514 Tregaron Ave., Louisville, KY 40299 or Beverly Schulz, 3200 Ragains Rd., New Salisbury, IN 47161.
